Jim, how modest you CIIA types have become. Here I spend all that time with the three of you yesterday and there was no mention of t e Village Voice's big thing on what I gather is the one and only Bob Smith, and there is no mention of it and such modesty I'm not even shown a copy. It is in this case unusual that nobody has sent me a copy. Maybe it will yet happen. Anyway, I'm sure glad to know that Bob has all these great accomplishments to his credit. I also regret my ignorance that denies me both knowledge and understanding of them. I take it they also speleed his name right?
